

California is a Nation, not just a State. We have a unique identity, values, and culture. Our population is larger than Canada, our industries export the future, and with the 5th largest economy in the world we are more than capable of making our own way.

Join the movement at CaliforniaNational.party